Did You Know?

Want to see interesting things about our community and the residents within? Have a story, poem, article, or piece of artwork that you would like to share on our website? E-mail us your submission and it could appear here on our community post! Otherwise, feel free to enjoy the tidbits of information about the lovely community we live in.

Did you know that there is a published author originally from our very own community? Her name is Ashley Dooley and you can check out her website below!
